

THE RUTLAND HERALD.

POETRY.

WASHINGTON'S TOMB. BY ROBERT BROWNE.

Tomb of the mighty dead!
Stand by every hour,
Till waves cover the bed;
Or shade us from the sun;

While full Fortune flows
Beneath Mount Vernon's sun,
Honored by friends and foes,
Rest here in silent repose.

WASHINGTON.

Sons of our pilgrim sires,
Sons of our boundless West—
Ye whom the truest tree,
Or the cold hills call to rest!

Stand here, as brothers meet,

With a loved heart stone—

Meet in communion sweet,
Here at your father's feet.

WASHINGTON.

Others on glory's rock
Have an enduring name,
Elected in little shock;
Sculptured with blood and flame;

But when the mother at her knee,
Teacheth her cradled son,

Lessons of Liberty,

Shall he not step of thee?

WASHINGTON.

Should hateful Discord steal
Our nation's strength away,
Or fierce invasion's reckless zeal
Break old Bunker's day?

Our land doth tremble at the tree
That grew 'neath Oliver's sun—

What shall the world's wide be?
Revere the true and free!

VARIETIES.

TO YOUTH

The uprising generation are the beauty and glory of the land, and it is to that part of our population that patriots and christians look with an eye of anxious anticipation: Yes youthful readers, you are viewed as the future hope of our country, the ornaments of society, the comfort of parents and friends, and as polished pillars in the house of God, that shall with unwearied steadfastness support that spiritual building. You therefore discover at a single glance, the importance and responsibility of the situation in which you are placed.

When your minds are brought seriously to bear on this matter, do not some such thoughts as these revolve in your hearts?—Will the expectations concerning me and my youthful companions be realized? Do I possess, and shall I reduce to practice those virtuous principles which serve as the safe-guard of national liberty and independence? Have I embraced, and do I cherish in my soul that vital piety, that divine religion, which qualifies me for the acceptable service of the sanctuary, and which shall enable me to supply the place of the humble Christian when he shall have been consigned to the house of silence? Those of you who are strangers to such reflections—those in whose bosoms such thoughts do not revolve, have great reason to fear that the hope indulged of their future usefulness and happiness will be disappointed.—Much depends with regard to your future condition on the start you take in the commencement of life. Be careful whom you select as your early associates. If they be votaries of sinful pleasures, and fond of those amusements that kill time, and estrange the heart from the exercise of religion—if they belong to the ungodly and heaven-daring class, who profane the name of Jehovah, and violate his holy sabbath—be assured the prospect relative to your future course is gloomy, and continuing to love and delight in such society, an awful end awaiteth you. He that loveth wise men shall be wise, but the companion of fools shall be destroyed.'

FANCY STOCK. An aged father called his son into his room on the day he was twenty one years of age, and with a serious countenance addressed him thus:

"My son, you are now free, and must thereafter provide wholly for yourself. In this packet is $3000; yet you will have to labor as though you were not worth a cent. Take it with my blessing."

The son retired, examined the packet, and found —fifteen hundred dollars in continental money, and the remainder in outlawed ducats, accompanied with this note:

FATHER.

He did, and now occupies the noblest palace that "the city of palaces" can produce. A shilling was his father's capital—a shilling was his.

Reason. The three thousand dollars given by his father was the only "fancy stock" he ever possessed.—Detroit Spec.

Hard Names. A neighbour editor calls the party which nominated Silas H. Jenison for governor and David M. Camp for lieutenant governor the "bank—federal—whig—anti-slavery—Harrison—amalgamation party." It is no new thing for a man to call names when he is out of arguments. It is the most common method of blowing off steam and the revenge is as sweet as that taken by the boy when he said to another, "darn you, if I can't kick you I'll make up mouths at your sister."—Fermont Mercury.

A NIGHT OF MURDERS. No less than three murders were committed at N Orleans on the night of June 28th. One, a man named Miller or Muller, in Poydras street, suspected of a sum, con. affair with another man's wife—he was detected in the act, followed to the corner and shot. The second in Perdido street. The third, a wretched man named Moel, (French) found dead and shot through the heart, near the Custom House. Another watchman was nearly killed.

"Come friend," said a creditor to his debtor, "I want that money. I haven't got it. But I must have it now. Well—if you get it before I do, just let me know well you?"

Brandreth's Pills.

"The true riches of Life are Health."

WE know that health and ability to labor, is the wealth of the great mass of the people in this, as in most other countries. To preserve, therefore, that health by natural means, as a grand, moral and political scheme, to fulfil which, requires our utmost attention.

The unprecedented success which has resulted from Brandreth's Pills, during a period of upwards of eight years, the numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individuals whom they have rescued from almost inevitable death, after they had been pronounced incurable by the most eminent of the faculty—justify Dr Brandreth, the proprietor of this universal medicine, in warmly and conscientiously recommending it to the special notice of the public.

Dr Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this truth, that health depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the porosity of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain therefore, the most direct cure of the blood is a question of no little importance to every individual.

That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct purifiers of the blood, there will be no doubt, when it is known that they have gained their present very extensive use by their own intrinsic merit, proved by the numerous cures which they have accomplished in every variety of disease.

The peculiar action of these pills is most surprising, their operations being more or less powerful, according to the porosity of the circulating fluid. On a person in a state of health, who is only constipated or slightly bilious, they will be scarcely felt; on the contrary, if the complaint be chronic and the constitution be much deranged, the effect generally at first is most powerful, until the system be freed of some of its most vitiated and turbid humors. This accomplished, does sufficient to cause two or three evacuations daily, will soon remove the disease, and the constitution will soon be restored to a state of health and renewed vigor.

These pills are recommended by thousands of persons who have had cures of consumption, influenza, colds, indigestion, dyspepsia, hæmorrhage, gout, rheumatism, nervous diseases, liver complaints, pleurisies, depressions of spirits, fits, palsies, dropsy, drops, coughs, whooping coughs, quinsy, colic, cholera morbus, gravel, mortification, scrofula, erysipelas, or St. Anthony's fire, salt rheum, white swellings, cancers, tumors, swelled feet, and piles, pectorines, all eruptions of the skin, female complaints of every kind, especially obstructions, relaxations &c &c.

Such is the reputation, and so great the demand for the genuine "Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills," that a counterfeit article is made, advertised and sold as genuine—and some individuals who sell the counterfeit pills, have advertised themselves as my agents, and I have found it necessary to preserve the reputation of my pills, and save the public from imposition, to furnish every agent with a certificate, which is as follows—

"BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS."

Security against Counterfeits.

The within named Ferre & Parmalee, of Middlebury, Conn. are my appointed General Agents for the State of Vermont, Connecticut, (except Fairfield county,) Hampshire and Franklin Counties, Mass.; Cheshire and Sullivan Counties, N. Hampshire.

And this letter which is signed by me B. BRANDRETH, in my own hand writing, must also be signed by the within named General Agent, whose name will also appear in the principal papers in the United States. This caution has become absolutely necessary, to guard the public against the numerous counterfeits which are out of the above popular medicine.
